- 1.5 Any reference to a "person" shall, as the context may require, be construed as a reference to any individual, firm, company, corporation, government department, body or agency or any association or partnership (whether or not having a separate legal personality).
- 1.6 The words "include", "includes" and "including" are to be construed as if they were immediately followed by the words "without limitation"; and
- 1.7 If there is any conflict or ambiguity between the provisions in the main body of this document and any of the Annexes, it shall be resolved in the following order of precedence:
- (a) the main body of the Grant Offer Letter;
 - (b) Annex 1; and
 - (c) Annex 2.

2 DURATION

- 2.1 This document shall commence on the date of the Grant Offer Letter and expire on the End Date unless UKRI extends it for a period or periods of its choosing on written notice to the Recipient.

3 RECIPIENT'S OBLIGATIONS

3.1 The Recipient shall:

- (a) carry out the Project in accordance with the Project Plan, the terms of this document and all relevant legislation and statutory requirements in force at the date on which the Project (or relevant part thereof) is performed;
- (b) use the Grant solely for the delivery of the Project and not, without the prior written consent of UKRI, make any change to the Project;
- (c) keep UKRI fully informed of the progress of the Project in accordance with clause 4.1.

3.2 The Recipient agrees that it is a fundamental term that goes to the heart of the Grant Offer Letter that it shall comply with its obligations under the HE Agreement and (where applicable) the Consortium Agreement, which shall include any match funding requirements, in full and at all times.

3.3 The Recipient agrees that if it breaches clause 3.2 UKRI may:

- (a) terminate the Grant Offer Letter immediately on written notice to the Recipient; and
- (b) recover any payment of the Grant from the Recipient.

3.4 Pursuant to clause 3.2 above the Recipient confirms that:

- (a) the Grant shall only be used to reimburse the Eligible Costs incurred by the Recipient;
- (b) it has provided and shall continue to provide true and accurate information, which may include, but is not limited to any financial and technical reports, communication regarding the Project, to and from the EU, Coordinator, Beneficiary and the Recipient (copies of which it shall send to UKRI at its request);
- (c) it shall comply with any and all information requests made by UKRI, including but not limited to requests for information relating to the HE Agreement, the Consortium Agreement and the Project within 10 working days to the full extent permitted by law;
- (d) in delivering the Project in accordance with the HE Agreement and the Consortium Agreement it will not exceed the Grant;
- (e) it will inform UKRI in writing immediately if it receives notice of termination of the HE Agreement and/or the Consortium Agreement from the EU or Coordinator or Beneficiary; and
- (f) it has in place all insurances required by the HE Agreement, the Consortium Agreement (if applicable) and any match funding agreements it has entered into in respect of the Project.

4 PROJECT MONITORING

4.1 The progress of the Project will be monitored by UKRI through the Monitoring Officer. The Monitoring Officer is the Recipient's first point of contact for official notifications, queries and correspondence with UKRI, unless otherwise required by the Grant Offer Letter. The Recipient must comply with any requests for information and deadlines from the Monitoring Officer.

- 4.2 The Recipient's project manager, and others as may be agreed from time to time, will meet with the Monitoring Officer once a Quarter (or other agreed period) to review the Recipient's written progress report for the period since the last monitoring meeting. The Recipient must deliver the progress report to the Monitoring Officer no later than 14 days before the scheduled monitoring meeting.
- 4.3 The Monitoring Officer will require the Recipient to provide satisfactory evidence of project delivery in the following three aspects:
- (a) technical assurance;
 - (b) financial assurance; and
 - (c) project management assurance.
- 4.4 Failure to provide satisfactory evidence in any one of these areas will prevent the Monitoring Officer from validating the Recipient's claims for Grant.
- 4.5 UKRI shall be entitled to inspect any financial or other records and procedures associated with the Grant as are reasonably required to verify the regularity and propriety of Grant expenditure (including expenditure by Third Parties), or to appoint any other body or individual for the purpose of such inspection. The Recipient must ensure that UKRI and any body or individual appointed by UKRI is given access to records and procedures held by the Recipient and Third Parties to assess compliance with this clause 4.5.
- 4.6 At the end of the Project, the Recipient will be required to supply UKRI with the following:
- (i) the Final Report;
 - (ii) confirmation that the Independent Accountant's Report has been submitted; and
 - (iii) confirmation that the final claim has been submitted.
- 4.7 The Recipient must, for a period of ten years after payment of the final instalment of the Grant, retain records and other supporting documentation. This is in order to prove compliance with the terms of this document, in particular that the costs it declares are Eligible Costs. The Recipient must maintain records and other supporting documentation in accordance with its obligations under the HE Agreement or Consortium Agreement.

5 PAYMENT OF GRANT

- 5.1 The Recipient acknowledges and agrees that UKRI only makes payments of the Grant in accordance with this document on a benevolent basis to assist the Recipient to deliver the Project.
- 5.2 Subject to the remainder of this clause 5, UKRI will reimburse the Recipient up to the amount of the Grant for the Eligible Costs of the Project.
- 5.3 UKRI shall be permitted to change the GBP (£) value of the Grant where in UKRI's opinion there is a significant fluctuation in the GBP:EUR exchange rate from the exchange rate previously used to calculate the GBP (£) value of the outstanding Grant sum provided always that:

- (a) the GBP value of the Grant shall not change more than once in any 12-month period; and
 - (b) the revaluation process shall not affect payments which have already been made to the Recipient.
- 5.4 UKRI will pay the Grant in instalments quarterly in arrears following submission of a claim, unless otherwise agreed between UKRI and the Recipient in writing.
- 5.5 All claims will be submitted and payments will be made in GBP (£). The Recipient shall not be entitled to make any claim for funding which would cause the total amounts claimed under the Grant Offer Letter to exceed the value of the Grant.
- 5.6 The Recipient's claims must be supported by:
- (a) a current forecast as at the claim date of the Eligible Costs to the end of the Project, detailing the expected costs for each future claim period, highlighting any significant variations from the last forecast. Any variance greater than 20% between the original forecast and actual expenditure for each forecast interval may be subject to review and may affect the eligibility of the claim value;
 - (b) confirmation that the Recipient has incurred and defrayed the Eligible Costs in respect of which claims have been made. For this purpose, an Independent Accountant's Report must be provided by a qualified independent accountant of the Recipient (the "Independent Accountant") to UKRI at the intervals notified to the Recipient by UKRI. The Independent Accountant must be appointed by the Recipient in accordance with the template terms of engagement provided by UKRI to the Recipient. All costs must be supported by an Independent Accountant's Report, and any uncertified costs will be ineligible for grant;
 - (c) if requested by UKRI, the latest published annual accounts or management accounts of the Recipient. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this clause 5.6(c) shall require the Recipient to provide financial information in breach of any law, order or regulation restricting such disclosure; and
 - (d) In exceptional circumstances, UKRI may also require an Independent Accountant's Report to be submitted before the final claim. Such exceptional circumstances shall include without limitation:
 - (i) withdrawal from the Project,
 - (ii) termination of the Project,
 - (iii) a claim disclosing expenditure substantially greater than forecast, or
 - (iv) a suspicion of a breach of this document.
- 5.7 When making claims pursuant to clause 5, the following applies:
- (a) recoverable VAT is not an Eligible Cost for claims purposes;
 - (b) unless otherwise agreed with UKRI in writing in advance, claims must be for costs incurred and paid for wholly completed quarters only, except for the final quarter of the Term where the Recipient may submit a claim for costs incurred but not necessarily defrayed prior to the End Date, provided that:
 - (i) the payment is for Eligible Costs relating to labour, overhead and/or travel and subsistence costs only;
 - (ii) the payment is defrayed within 30 days of the End Date; and

(iii) the payment is included within the final Independent Accountant's Report.

Failure to comply with this clause 5.7(b) will result in UKRI reclaiming the Grant against all such costs incurred;

- (c) the Recipient is not allowed to submit more than one claim to UKRI relating to any particular calendar quarter;
 - (d) subject to clause 5.7(b), the Recipient shall not be entitled to claim for costs incurred and defrayed after the End Date, except for costs relating to its reporting obligations under this document during the period of 60 days following the End Date;
 - (e) once a claim and the supporting documentation set out in clause 5.6 has been received by UKRI, the corresponding Grant will normally be paid within 30 days, unless it is necessary for UKRI to seek further information to support the claim; and
 - (f) where UKRI needs to seek further information to support or understand the claim, UKRI agrees to contact the Recipient within 14 days of the claim being received. If UKRI deems any costs claimed to be ineligible and the Recipient disagrees with UKRI's assessment, the Recipient must within 30 days of UKRI's notice, notify UKRI of its disagreement and provide reasons and evidence why the costs are Eligible Costs. The final decision concerning eligibility rests with UKRI.
- 5.8 UKRI shall be under no obligation to pay any claim received by UKRI more than 30 days after the quarter during which the Eligible Cost(s) specified in the claim was incurred and paid by the Recipient.
- 5.9 UKRI reserves the right not to consider new applications from organisations or natural persons who have failed to return required financial reports on any projects funded by UKRI.
- 5.10 UKRI will retain 10% of the Grant value until the Project is complete and UKRI has received and reviewed:
- (a) all outstanding claims and their supporting information;
 - (b) the Final Report; and
 - (c) a final Independent Accountant's Report.
- 5.11 UKRI will not pay the final claim or the 10% retained Grant value if the items listed above are received later than 3 months after the End Date. Payment of the final claim and retained Grant value (10%) is subject to the contents of the final Independent Accountant's Report. If in UKRI's opinion adjustments are required, UKRI is entitled not to pay the full amount of the final claim and the retained Grant value. Failure to comply with the provision of the Independent Accountant's Report shall be considered to be a breach of the terms and conditions of the grant under clauses 7.1 and 7.2.
- 5.12 Where the Recipient enters into any contract with a Third Party in connection with the Project, the Recipient will remain responsible for paying that Third Party. For the avoidance of doubt, any onward payment of the Grant and use of sub-contractors will not relieve the Recipient of any of its obligations under this document including (but not limited to) any obligation to repay the Grant.
- 5.13 UKRI shall be entitled to recover and/or retain any cumulative unspent Grant paid and/or allocated to the Project.
- 5.14 UKRI reserves the right to appoint an auditor to ensure compliance with the terms and conditions of the Grant ("Auditor") and the Recipient agrees to co-operate with the Auditor and grant the Auditor access within two (2) weeks of notice of their appointment to such information and the Recipient's staff on the Recipient's site(s) as applicable, and as is reasonably requested by the Auditor. In the event that the Auditor determines that the Recipient should repay Grant to UKRI, UKRI reserves the right to recover the cost of the Auditor's work as well as the relevant portion of the Grant.

6 CHANGES TO THE PROJECT

6.1 In the event that any material change occurs, or is likely to occur, to:

- (a) the Recipient's participation in the wider HE project; or
- (b) the delivery timescales or outcomes for any work package or the Project as a whole; or
- (c) the Project's costs, budget, or allocation of costs between budget line headings; or
- (d) the ability of the Recipient to deliver the Project in accordance with the Project Plan;

the Recipient must notify UKRI promptly. UKRI may require revised proposals for its approval and reserves the right to make a new Grant in place of the existing Grant, or to revise, retain or terminate the existing Grant.

7 SUSPENSION, WITHDRAWAL, REPAYMENT OF GRANT & TERMINATION

7.1 Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies UKRI may have, UKRI may by written notice to the Recipient suspend payment of the Grant, withdraw future Grant payments to the Recipient and/or terminate the Grant Offer Letter with immediate effect in the event of any of the following:

- (a) the failure of the Project to provide any of the information required in clause 5;
- (b) the reasonable suspicion of fraud involving the Recipient;
- (c) the claiming against Grant of ineligible costs or costs not actually incurred and paid;
- (d) the use of Grant funds for purposes unconnected with the Project;
- (e) there is a failure to maintain satisfactory progress on the Project or the Project can no longer be carried out in the UK;
- (f) any material changes to the proposed outcomes of the Project;
- (g) the Recipient either withheld information or provided UKRI with materially inaccurate or misleading information, in its Grant application or claim(s) which results in an overpayment of the Grant;
- (h) there is a fundamental change to the Recipient's articles of association that has not been agreed by any third party funder(s) and/or UKRI, where the articles of association require such agreement to have been obtained;
- (i) the Recipient becomes insolvent, or is declared bankrupt, or is placed into receivership, administration or liquidation, or a petition has been presented for its winding up, or it enters into any arrangement or composition for the benefit of its creditors, or it is unable to pay its debts as they fall due, or the Recipient does or suffers anything substantially equivalent to any of the foregoing;

- (j) there is a change in the legal status or the actual or effective ownership or control of the Recipient;
- (k) the Recipient transfers, assigns or novates to any third party, or encumbers in any way, the Grant without UKRI's written consent;
- (l) without prejudice to clause 3.2, the Recipient is in breach of this document and the breach is not considered in the sole discretion of UKRI to be remediable, or where it is considered remediable by UKRI, the breach is not in the opinion of UKRI remedied within 30 days of UKRI's notice to the Recipient;
- (m) the Recipient receives any funding from any other source or person towards the Project which duplicates the Grant;
- (n) the HE Agreement or the Consortium Agreement terminates or the Recipient's participation in the HE Agreement or Consortium Agreement is terminated (including but not limited to the Recipient no longer being an Associated Partner);
- (o) UKRI has reasonable grounds to believe that the payment of the Grant breaches Subsidy Rules;
- (p) Her Majesty's Treasury requires UKRI to suspend, withdraw or terminate payments under the Programme;
- (q) the Recipient fails to comply with clause 3.2 above;
- (r) the Recipient fails to comply with clause 9.3 or 9.4; or
- (s) UKRI becomes aware of a breach by the Recipient of its obligations under any EU or Euratom grant agreement which has a material impact on the Project.

7.2 Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies UKRI may have, UKRI may require repayment of Grant from the Recipient (irrespective of whether monies have been expended by the Recipient) in the event of any of the following:

- (a) an overpayment of Grant has occurred whether disclosed by a report or otherwise and as soon as demanded by UKRI or upon the Recipient becoming aware, whichever occurs first;
- (b) the Recipient either withheld information or provided UKRI with materially inaccurate or misleading information, in its Grant application or claim(s) which results in an overpayment of the Grant;
- (c) the Project is insufficiently resourced or managed to achieve delivery;
- (d) fraud or the claiming against Grant of ineligible costs or costs not actually incurred and paid;
- (e) the use of Grant funds for purposes unconnected with the Project;
- (f) the material failure of the Recipient to use reasonable efforts to progress the Project or perform the work it agreed to perform under the Project Plan submitted to UKRI;
- (g) without prejudice to clause 3.2, the Recipient is in breach of this document and the breach is not considered in the sole discretion of UKRI to be remediable, or where it is considered remediable by UKRI, the breach is not in the opinion of UKRI remedied within 30 days of UKRI's notice to the Recipient;
- (h) the Recipient receives any funding from any other source or person towards the Project which duplicates the Grant;

- (i) the Recipient generates a Profit from the Project;
- (j) UKRI has reasonable grounds to believe that the payment of the Grant breaches Subsidy Rules;
- (k) the Recipient fails to comply with clause 3.2 above;
- (l) a fundamental change to the Recipient's articles of association that has not been agreed by any third party funder(s) and/or UKRI, where the articles of association require such agreement to have been obtained; or
- (m) UKRI becomes aware of a breach by the Recipient of its obligations under any EU or Euratom grant agreement which has a material impact on the Project.

7.3 In relation to clause 7.2, the Recipient shall be required to pay such sums as notified by UKRI to UKRI within 30 days of receiving the notification.

8 FINANCIAL IRREGULARITY

8.1 The Recipient warrants that it has adequate systems of financial control in place to identify fraud, bribery, corruption or any other financial irregularity in connection with the Grant.

8.2 If the Recipient suspects fraud, bribery, corruption or any other financial irregularity in connection with this Grant, it shall report it to UKRI immediately at reportfraud@ukri.org.

8.3 UKRI reserves the right to instruct the Recipient to take additional steps to address any actual or suspected financial irregularity in connection with the Grant.

8.4 The Recipient represents that neither it, nor to the best of its knowledge, any of its employees, agents, sub-contractors and/or subsidiaries have at any time prior to the start of the Grant Offer Letter:

- (a) committed a Prohibited Act or been formally notified that it is subject to an investigation or prosecution which relates to an alleged Prohibited Act; and/or
- (b) been listed by any government department or agency as being debarred, suspended, proposed for suspension or debarment, or otherwise ineligible for participation in government procurement programmes or contracts on the grounds of a Prohibited Act.

8.5 The Recipient shall not during the Term:

- (a) commit a Prohibited Act; or
- (b) do or suffer anything to be done which would cause UKRI or any of its employees, consultants, contractors, subcontractors or agents to contravene any of the Relevant Requirements or otherwise incur any liability in relation to the Relevant Requirements.

8.6 The Recipient shall during the Term:

- (a) establish, maintain and enforce policies and procedures which are adequate to ensure compliance with the Relevant Requirements and prevent a Prohibited Act;
- (b) require that its sub-contractors establish, maintain and enforce the policies and procedures referred to in clause 8.6(a);
- (c) keep appropriate records of its compliance with its obligations under clauses 8.6(a) and 8.6(b);

- (d) if so required by UKRI, within thirty (30) calendar days of the of the start of the Grant Offer Letter, and at a frequency to be determined by UKRI, thereafter, certify in writing to UKRI, the compliance with this clause 8 of all the persons associated with the Recipient including but not limited to any of its employees, agents, sub-contractors and/or subsidiaries in connection with this document. The Recipient shall provide such supporting evidence of compliance as UKRI may rationally request; and
- (e) have, maintain and where appropriate enforce an anti-bribery policy (which shall be disclosed to UKRI on request) to prevent it and any of its employees, agents, sub-contractors and/or subsidiaries from committing a Prohibited Act.

9 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 9.1 UKRI has no interest in the ownership of any Intellectual Property Rights developed under the Project. However, for a period of four years after the end of the Term, UKRI may object to the Recipient transferring ownership of or exclusively licensing Intellectual Property Rights, where in its opinion, the transfer or licensing affects the United Kingdom's security or defence interests.
- 9.2 The Recipient shall notify UKRI of any transfer of ownership or exclusive licensing of Intellectual Property Rights developed under the Project
- 9.3 On request, the Recipient shall allow UKRI to access the results of the Project for the purposes of developing, implementing and/or monitoring UKRI's policies or programmes. Any access rights granted under this clause shall be royalty-free and limited to non-commercial and non-competitive use.
- 9.4 Where the Recipient is a Public Research Organisation, it shall:
 - (a) notify UKRI of any transfer of ownership or exclusive licensing of Intellectual Property Rights developed under the Project;
 - (b) take measures to implement the principles set out in points 1 and 2 of the Knowledge Transfer Code of Practice; and
 - (c) ensure that any researchers and other third parties involved in relevant activities in connection with the Project are aware of and comply with the Knowledge Transfer Code of Practice.

10 CONFIDENTIALITY AND INFORMATION MANAGEMENT

- 10.1 UKRI reserves the right to request from the Recipient access to any additional information deemed necessary by UKRI in connection with the Grant, including, but not limited to, details of any studentships relating to the Project. The Recipient must provide or allow access to such requested information within two (2) weeks of such a request to the full extent permitted by Law.
- 10.2 The Recipient confirms that it has provided and shall continue to provide true and accurate information to UKRI upon UKRI's request, which (notwithstanding the generality of clause 10.1 above) may include, but is not limited to, any financial and technical reports and/or any other communication regarding the viability of the Project to or from the EU or Coordinator or Beneficiary or the Recipient, provided that UKRI acknowledges that the Recipient shall be entitled to redact Confidential Information from such reports and/or communications prior to providing them to UKRI.
- 10.3 The Recipient shall ensure the Project is carried out in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018 in performing their obligations under this document.

- 10.4 UKRI and the Recipient shall each be Controllers for their respective Personal Data. UKRI shall retain the Recipient's Personal Data and Confidential Information in confidence and only use such information as detailed in the UKRI's Information Management Policy, as published on its website. Information shall only be disclosed by UKRI in accordance with the Information Management Policy (obtained from <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/privacy-notice-and-information-management-policy-innovate-uk>), and in accordance with clause 11.

11 FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

- 11.1 The Recipient acknowledges that UKRI is subject to the requirements of the FOIA and EIR.
- 11.2 UKRI shall be responsible for determining (in its absolute discretion) whether any information:
- (a) is exempt from disclosure in accordance with the FOIA or EIR; and
 - (b) is to be disclosed in response to a request for information.
- 11.3 The Recipient acknowledges that UKRI may be obliged under the FOIA or EIR to disclose information, in some cases even where that information is commercially sensitive:
- (a) without consulting with the Recipient, or
 - (b) following consultation with the Recipient and having taken its views into account.

12 PROCUREMENT

- 12.1 The Recipient will adopt such policies and procedures that are required in order to ensure that value for money is obtained in the procurement of goods, services or works funded by the Grant.
- 12.2 Where the Recipient is a Contracting Authority within the meaning of the Procurement Regulations the Recipient will comply, as necessary, with the Procurement Regulations when procuring goods, services or works in connection with this Grant. UKRI shall not be liable for the Recipient's failure to comply with its obligations under the Procurement Regulations.

13 SUBSIDIES

- 13.1 UKRI does not consider that the Grant awarded to the Recipient is a subsidy under the Subsidy Rules.
- 13.2 The Recipient must inform UKRI of any other public funding applied for or awarded against the Eligible Costs covered by this application.
- 13.3 In the event that the Grant (or any part of it) is found to be a subsidy pursuant to the Subsidy Rules, UKRI may take one or more of the following actions pursuant to clause 7:
- (a) suspend payment of the Grant;
 - (b) withdraw future payments of the Grant to the Recipient;
 - (c) require the repayment of the Grant by the Recipient; and/or
 - (d) terminate the Grant Offer Letter with immediate effect.

14 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 14.1 In the event that a dispute arises between UKRI and the Recipient, the parties will meet to try and negotiate a settlement in good faith. In the event that the parties are unable to resolve the matter, UKRI has the right to:
- (a) unilaterally terminate the Grant Offer Letter and to seek repayment of all or part of the Grant paid to the Recipient; or
 - (b) to refer the matter to the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), whose decision will be binding. Any arbitration will be conducted in accordance with LCIA Arbitration Rules before one arbitrator seated in London. Unless otherwise agreed between the parties, the mediator shall be nominated by LCIA.

15 EQUALITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

- 15.1 The Recipient must ensure that equality, diversity and inclusion (“EDI”) is considered and supported at all stages throughout the Project, in accordance with all relevant legal obligations, including but not limited to those of anti-discrimination in the Equality Act 2010.
- 15.2 EDI will be monitored during the Project and its evaluation. This will require, (and is not limited to) sharing of staff EDI data when requested, (to the extent such staff data can be lawfully processed) and monitoring and reporting on EDI impacts in line with the Equality Act 2010. All personal data provided to UKRI will be processed in accordance with current UK data protection legislation, including the Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation.

16 HUMAN RIGHTS, SAFEGUARDING AND WHISTLEBLOWING

- 16.1 The Recipient shall (and shall use its reasonable endeavours to procure that its staff shall) at all times comply with the provisions of the Human Rights Act 1998 in the performance of the Project as if the Recipient were a public body (as defined in the Human Rights Act 1998).
- 16.2 To prevent exploitation, abuse or harm from occurring, all relevant safeguarding legislation must be adhered to. UKRI particularly draw the Recipient’s attention to child protection legislation and the Modern Slavery Act 2015. The Recipient should have sufficient policies and processes in place in order to foster safeguarding and to adhere to UKRI’s Preventing Harm (Safeguarding) in Research and Innovation policy.
- 16.3 The Recipient shall undertake, or refrain from undertaking, such acts as UKRI requests so as to enable UKRI to comply with its obligations under the Human Rights Act 1998.
- 16.4 The Recipient should adhere to good practice recommended by the National Audit Office Assessment Criteria for Whistleblowing policies.

17 GENERAL

- 17.1 In the event that UKRI’s ability to deliver Grant funding is significantly affected by Force Majeure Event or circumstances beyond its control, including but not limited to changes in Law, UK Government or devolved administration policy and/or European Union policy or regulations, it may, in its absolute discretion, terminate the Grant Offer Letter and discontinue payments to the Recipient by giving the Recipient, with due regard to the circumstances, such reasonable notice as possible, and in writing, of its decision to terminate the Grant Offer Letter. In such circumstances, and unless illegal or unethical factors have contributed to the decision to terminate the Grant Offer Letter, UKRI will meet any Eligible Costs of the Project reasonably incurred by the Recipient prior to the date of termination.

- 17.2 UKRI reserves the right to vary this document unilaterally and at any time by giving the Recipient three (3) months' notice of any such variation before it is due to take effect.
- 17.3 The Recipient may not assign, transfer, sub-contract, or in any other way make over to any third party any of its rights or obligations under this document without UKRI's written consent.
- 17.4 Failure to exercise, or any delay in exercising, any right or remedy provided under this document or by law shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it preclude or restrict any further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.
- 17.5 This document shall not create any partnership or joint venture, nor any relationship of principal and agent, between the parties, nor authorise any party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of the other party.
- 17.6 This document is made solely for the benefit of the parties to it and is not intended to benefit or be enforceable by any other person.
- 17.7 To the fullest extent permitted by Law, UKRI:
- (a) accepts no liability for any consequences, whether direct or indirect, that may come about from the Recipient undertaking the Project, the use of the Grant, or the withdrawal of the Grant; and
 - (b) in any event, limits its liability to the amount of the Grant that remains unpaid.
- 17.8 This document and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
- 17.9 No Grant funded activity should be used to further party political considerations, or for party political purposes, or for lobbying for political parties, nor should personal political views influence Project activity in relation to the Grant. Should this clause 17.9 be breached it may lead to the suspension, withdrawal or clawback of the Grant by UKRI.
- 17.10 Nothing in this document shall prejudice the rights or ability, under EU law, international law and/or domestic law, of the Recipient and/or UKRI to seek payment of the Grant under the HE Agreement and/or Consortium Agreement and/or of UKRI to seek reimbursement of any payments made under the Grant Offer Letter.

18 ENTIRE AGREEMENT

- 18.1 No amendment to the terms of this document will be effective unless and until confirmed in writing (including via electronic communications) by, and on behalf of, UKRI. This document constitutes the entire agreement between UKRI and the Recipient relating to the Grant, although it is understood that UKRI may have relied upon representations made by the Recipient prior to the execution of this document. For the avoidance of doubt, no representations have been made by UKRI and relied upon by the Recipient relating to this document.
