UKRI Interdisciplinary Responsive Mode Assessment Process Overview Applications submitted on JeS for outline: Full stage on TFS Applications Received Fail remit check UKRI Remit Checks Proposals are checked for remit: research must be interdisciplinary and include disciplines from >1 council are informed Application Matching Proposals are matched to college members Outline Application Review Applications sent to 3 college members. Applications scored based on assessment criteria outlined in call text Chairs to review applications with divergent scores Application Sift Sift based on scores and balancing to ensure a diverse portfolio Outline Rejects College Chairs Sign off Unsuccessful applicants are College chairs to agree applications to be invited to full stage (Max 300) individualised feedback is Notification of Outcome Successful applications are invited to submit full applications on TFS Full Proposals developed Successful applicants are sent full proposal details and prepare applications

Applications that fail remit checks notified. General rather than available from the sift panel. Notification of Success Candidates are notified of the success of their application. Announcement Outcomes are published Full Application Rejects Unsuccessful applicants are

