EQUALITY AND INCLUSION IMPACT ASSESSMENT

1. Policy / activity being assessed	Astronomy Large Awards – is a highly competitive funding mechanism available to support the Astronomy research community, looking to fund all aspects of Astronomy, Astrophysics and aspects of solar system and planetary studies
2. Summary of aims and objectives of the policy / activity	The aim of the scheme is to advance excellent science within Astronomy Observation (AO), Astronomy Theory (AT), Solar Studies (SS) and Planetary Science (PL). It does this by <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensuring that the programme supported is scientifically excellent and is clearly in line with stated Council strategic science objectives; • Considering the strategic objectives of the UK Space Agency, addressing the impact agenda and being responsive to changes and new ideas; • Ensuring that the process is transparent and accountable, particularly with respect to the means of prioritisation; • Ensuring that the outcome, where appropriate, takes account of the Council's and the UK Space Agency's current and planned investment in facilities; • Ensuring that there is an appropriate balance between observations, instrumentation and theory and between the various sub-disciplines of astronomy and the development of novel, generic technologies for astronomy and space science, consistent with the overall strategy of Council and the UK Space Agency. • Ensuring that awards follow the standard UKRI Terms & Conditions At the EOI stage the Panel members will evaluate your submission based on the criteria set out in the funding finder guidance. At the full application stage Panel members use their own knowledge and experience to select suitable reviewers, evaluate the proposal, reviewer's comments and PI response against set assessment criteria. Following which each application is ranked and presented to STFC - Science Board and UKSA – Science Programme Advisory Committee for approval.

3. What involvement and consultation has been done in relation to this policy?	STFC is dedicated to ensuring that the process is open and inclusive. Those engaged in the process endeavour to conduct each stage in a fair manner, without prejudice or bias, In line with this we follow the Nolan Principles. Additionally, comments and suggestions received as part of the peer review survey are implemented where possible to improve the process. Specific to Large Awards - Large awards were introduced in 2023 after a review and community consultation of the Consolidated Grant process which took place in 2022. . As a result a number of significant changes have been implemented which are likely to improve E&D, for example removing the restriction of one consolidated grant proposal per per group/organisation every three years has resulted in <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Applicants permitted to submit individual proposals, thus recognising PI roles via the small awards scheme • Applicants permitted to submit thematically via the large awards scheme • Demand management between the two schemes has been decoupled providing more flexibility for when Applicants can apply, so mitigating against paternity, maternity sick leave etc For Applicants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The call is advertised widely to reach the largest possible audience • The call text and guidance provides detailed guidelines to Applicants about the process and links to the Research Grants Handbook, which has clear eligibility and assessment criteria • STFC will make available hard copies of documents when necessary to do so • The UKRI / STFC website conforms to accessibility requirements for websites • STFC will support Applicants throughout the process, from pre-submission right through to informing them of the outcome. For Reviewers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A wide range of reviewers are approached, and usage and spread is monitored each round • Reviewers are pre-approached via email where the process is explained and availability checked prior to formal request for comments via the UKRI Funding Service • Written guidance is available and reviewed annually • STFC will provide all reasonable support to our reviewers in order to ensure they understand the aims, objectives, and processes of the Large Award calls.
