Annex B Key Performance Indicators

The appointed Contractor will fulfil their duties in accordance with the contract specification. To assist in managing the contract against the specifications, the following Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) are linked to Service Credits that will be invoked to cover shortfalls in attendances or quality measures.

The process will be a fixed cost reduction for performance that falls into the red performance range against the performance indicators graded low, medium to major risk deducted on a monthly basis per element until performance reaches Amber status. Red performance over a period of 2 consecutive months will trigger the contract breach mechanism and the Service Credit being applied.

It is expected that for those areas scoring in the amber range movement to green will be within 3 months. A failure to achieve this will result in that that element being regarded as a red failure and the appropriate deduction made.

Service Credits are a pre-estimate of the likely costs incurred by the Customer in the event of a Contractor performance failure and are as follows:

Low Risk = £500, Medium Risk = £1000, Major = £1,500

KPI Ref	Performance Indicators (Monthly unless otherwise stated)	Grade	Green	Amber	Red
01	Staff Turnover (number per quarter). Retention of site-trained guards is paramount.	Major	<1	2-3	>3
02	Absenteeism & Sickness per month (shifts). Where a guard does not turn up for duty, but a replacement is brought to site within 2 hours of shift start time	Major	<2	3-5	>5
03	Absenteeism & Sickness per month (shifts). Where a guard does not turn up for duty and replacement is not brought to site within 2 hours of shift start time	Major	0	1	>1
04	Number of reported service complaints (upheld) to the Client per month	Medium	<3	4-6	>6
05	Emergency Incident response times	Major	< 60 minutes	60 – 120 minutes	>120 minutes
06	Number of late shift handovers each month	Medium	1	2-5	>5
