

English Heritage: Research Priorities

Dr Megan Leyland (Senior Curator of History, Partnerships)
Dr Andrew Hann (Senior Curator of History, Research Coordination)

English Heritage

Heritage is for everybody, and we are here for heritage.

That's why, as a charity, we care for over a million objects and hundreds of historic sites in every part of England. And it's why we open them up, share their stories and find new ways for everybody to enjoy, learn, play and create.

Our Research Priorities

Our Research Priorities

1. Inclusive Narratives

2. Conservation and Stewardship

3. Engagement and Interpretation

4. Wellbeing and Society

Inclusive Narratives

Conservation and Stewardship

Engagement and Interpretation

Wellbeing and Society

About You

We would expect fellows to have experience working in, and/ or conducting research relevant to the historic environment or the GLAM sector, and to have strong collaborative working and research dissemination skills.

Priority specific skills & knowledge

1. Inclusive Narratives: primary source research and methodologies around contested histories; interpreting contested histories; collaborative & partnership working

2. Conservation and Stewardship: conservation science techniques; climate change; digital technologies; collections management & research

3. Engagement and Interpretation: evaluating innovative interpretation; interpreting contested histories; collaborative & partnership working

4. Wellbeing and Society: working within a therapeutic setting; social sciences and theories of identity and belonging; working with young people

Contact us

Dr Megan Leyland, Senior Curator of History (Partnerships)
megan.Leyland@english-heritage.org.uk

Dr Andrew Hann, Senior Curator of History (Research Coordination)
andrew.hann@english-heritage.org.uk

